LOCAL NEWS.

PROPOSED "RETROCESSION."-We learn that Mr. Ingersoll, of the Committee on the District of Columbia, of the House of Representatives, has stated that there will be a meeting of said Committee, on Friday, Februaary 1, at 11 o'clock, a. m., "for the purpose of considering a bill proposing the repeal of the act of Congress of 1846, retroceding that portion of the District of Columbia, South of the tion of the District of Columbia, South of the Potomac river, and included in the County of the gentleman at his side. Something diverted & Brown. Private lessons will be given to Alexandria." As this is a matter, in our opinion, transcending in importance any questions about railroads, or canals, or canal-railroads, and designed if perfected, to strike a vital blow at the rights interests, and future few days since that another heavy robbery was prosperity of Alexandria, and the feelings of perpetrated in that locality. our people, we trust that the constituted authorities of the city, and the people themselves, will take steps, as far as they are able, to counteract this design, and, if possible, frustrate such a scheme.

SKATING .- The skaters are now enjoying themselves to their hearts content, though the snow, which covers patches et the ice, some- and $5 from Mrs. James Chatham. what interferes with their sport. Every evening many of both sexes can be seen from the wharves indulging in the slippery recreation .-Were we not so constantly occupied, we would, above all things, like to adjust the skates upon the feet of some of our lady friends, and ac company them during an evening's icy ramble, so that we could fully appreciate the poetical lines:

"O! the sound of the gossamer feet, Of the fairies who float so near; O! the dances they ever and ever repeat In the moonlight cold and clear. When the moonlight reigns, In tangled skeins, Over lake and valley and mere, They float, they float, Like a fairy boat, Over crystal cold and clear."

THE REV. MR. HUNNICUTT. - Buelah Chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity last night by the colored population of the city, to hear a lecture delivered there by the Rev. Mr. Hupnicutt, the Unconditional Loyalist, whose Amazonian friend effectually cleared an African church, in Richmond, the other night, as will be seen by an excerpt from the Dispatch, in another column of this evening's Gazette.-So jammed and packed was the Chapel that even Judge Underwood, after futile endeavors | Baltimore. to obtain admission, was compelled to abandon the effort and go home with his ears ungratified by the sound of the Reverend gentleman's voice. Of course that which would not respond to the Judge's open sesame it would have been foolishness for a reporter to attempt, and so he came away too. Mr. Hunnicutt is to deliver another lecture to-night, at the African Methodist Church, on Washington street.

HANDSOME PAINTING.—There is now on exhibition, and to be raffled, at the jewelry store of W. W. Adam on King street, a handsome life size oil painting of General Lee, the work of our friend, the young Alexandria artist, Mr. Hector Eaches. This picture is to be raffled as soon as one hundred and fifty chances -of which number about forty have already been taken-are subscribed for. The price of the chances is only $2 each, but the winner will possess a truly artistic portrait of the great Captain of the Army of Northern Virginia, which in after years will be invaluable.

CITY GAS LAMPS.—The attention of the proper authorities is called to the frequent omission of those whose duty it is to light the Street Lamps in the First Ward, to perform their duty. Great inconvenience and anoyance is experienced by the citizens of that ward, in consequence of the memphian darkness which nightly prevails in that locality, and the more especially now, when the side walks are covered with ice.

THE RIVER.—The ice on the Potomac is increasing in thickness, and each succeeding night freezes more than has been thawed by the sun during the day: The ferry boats on the line between this city and Washington ceased running in consequence of the ice blockade, on the 28th of last December, and from present appearances there is no likelihood of a speedy resumption of navigation on the river.

THE CANAL RAILROAD.—We are informed that W. H. Dulany, Esq., started on last night's train of cars for Richmond, bearing with him to the Legislature a protest againts granting a charter for the construction of a railroad from this city to Georgetown along the line of the Alexandria Canal. Lawrence B. Taylor, Esq., also started for Richmond, last night, to aid in procuring the asked for charter.

BAL MASQUE.—The Eintracht Society of this city propose having a grand masquerade ball on the seventh of next month, and from our knowledge of those who are to have the management of the affair, an amusing and agreeable entertainment will be enjoyed by all who attend. An advertisement in a day or two will announce the hall in which the ball will be held, and other particulars.

SLEIGHING.—The sleighing on the main than any goods that have been offered in this market. Among them are—

FIGHT. - Considerable excitement was created in the New Market this morning, about eleven o'clock, by a fisticuff engagement which came off there between two of the butchers, whose stalls are in that market. The combatants were separated before any serious damage had been sustained by either party.

FREIGHT TRAIN DETAINED .- The freight train on the Orange and Alexandria railroad, due here yesterday evening at 5 o'clock, did not arrive until about 7, in consequence of the failure of the trains on the Central railroad to arrive in time. DRAMATIC.—The Anglo-German play of "English" will be produced by the German Eintracht Association of this city, at their rooms, in Washington Hall, on the night of HEAVY ROBBERY.—The National Intelligencer says: Yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock, while Mr. D. R. Peters, of Lynchburg, Va., was sitting in the depot of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, on Maryland avenue, in Washington, his valise, containing $17,921 on the Farmers' Bank of Fincastle, Va., was stolen from him. Mr. P. had just returned from Baltimore, and was on his way home. He was conversing with a friend at the time of the robbery, and had placed the valise between his feet, keeping his eye upon the property city. He can be found, for the present, from 1 his attention but for a moment, and upon looking down again be discovered that the valise was gone. The Detectives are on the look out. The bills are of the denominations of one, two, five, and ten dollars. It was but a

CAFETY OF THE RAILROAD BRIDGE. To the President and Directors of the Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown Railroad

GENTLEMEN: - Under your instructions I examined the bridge on your road over the Potomac river, on the 1st instant, and reported that it would be safer if the long spans on the Virginia side were supported in the centre by tres-tles. I have this day examined the bridge again, and found that trestles have been placed again, and found that tresties have been placed under the centre of each span, as recommended, and the bridge, in my opinion, is safer and stronger than when first built, and is perfectly secure for the passage of trains required for the local and through business of the road.
